

What do you think of the Angel 10 years on?

The Angel has huge wings and points to the north. The angel is ten this year.

The angel is 65 feet tall. The angel points north. I like the colour of the angel. The angel reminds people of god. When it turns different ages we celebrate its party. The angel is made of metal.

I like the angel because of the colour. When I look at the angel it makes me think of Christmas.

The amazing angel is amazing as the whole world and I think it is very tall. The angel's wings make it look like an aeroplane. When I look up at the angel it looks as if it's going to fall heavily on me.

I love the angel of the north! It is a beautiful piece of art and I love seeing it. There an amazing thing about it that makes it beautiful it looks like it can move because of the clouds and it's beautiful at dawn and sunset!

I think the angel's wings are as long as an aeroplane. When I first went to the angel I slid down the feet because it was fun. You can see the amazing angel from every distance in Gateshead. I think the angels colour is lovely and I think the angel is a boy.

The Amazing Angel

It is as tall as a football pitch; his wings are as long as our classroom. His head is as smooth as metal. He is the colour of chocolate and looks brownie black. You can slide down it because it is smooth.

I think the amazing angel is like a real angel and is about to take off. When I went to the angel in year 1 everybody liked to slide down the feet it was really fun and everyone was going wee. I think the angel is a boy.

I remember when I was three I went to the angel of the north but I didn't really enjoy because I nearly got blown away it was so windy. I think the angel is so brilliant because it's big and you can slide down the feet. Some people don't like the angel but I don't know why because it's brilliant.

When I went to the angel and looked up it looked like it falling down like a green brown tree. The first time I saw the angel I thought he was a boy and I went on his slippery legs and I slid down and was laughing all the way. The angel of the north looks like chocolate.

Its as tall as two double Decker busses. I love the colour because its chocolate colour and I like chocolate. The Angel is as wide as 200 people standing out wide.

The angel's wings are as long as a lorry. Probably the left wing and right wing on top of each other might be taller than the body. I nearly fainted when I first saw the angel. It reminds me a bit of chocolate (I love chocolate).

I enjoy about the angel is like when I look up at the Angel. His head is as big as a tub.

Once I went to the angel of the north it was a sunny day. I walked up to the angel and I really liked the angel of the north. I saw a ice cream van and got a yummy ice cream. I went down to the big field and ran around the field. When I came back it felt fit and healthy because I had some exercise. I had a very good trip to the angel of the north.

I think the angel of the north is a bit dull it should be a bit more colourful. I think the Angel of the north is a little bit boring standing in the field all day. I think the angel of the north is as smooth as a xxx. I think the angel is as taller than a house.

I can remember when I went to the angel of the north with the school and when I looked up it looked like it was falling down and it is as wide as an aeroplane. His colour is like mud. His feet are very slippy his head is as big as a football.

I think the angel is the tall structure I have ever seen. And it is fantastic. I like the Angels colour because it looks like chocolate melting. I can remember when I slide down.

I think the angel is amazing because the first time I went I wanted to slide down its feel. The first time I saw it I ran away from it because it was so big and I thought it was falling down because the clouds were moving. I think the make of it is good because it is strong.

I think the angel is amazing because the first day I went with the year two class I was sliding down his feet and he made me say wee and the angel looks like chocolate and the feet were smooth and slimy and slidey and slippy and the angel is very strong.

When I went to the tall Angel it looks like its going to fall down but sometimes it is fun to slide on the legs or play on the field next to it. I like the colour because it stands out well.

The last time I went to the angel of the north it was so big when I looked up it looked like it was going to fall heavily. That amazing angel is my number one favourite sculpture in the whole world and I love its colour because it reminds me of a chocolate bar waiting to be eaten.

I think the Angel is great because lots of people go to celebrate things and it spreads its wings out like an aeroplane ready to take off. I like the colour because it is chocolaty colour and it's quite rusty. Every time I go to the amazing angel I go up to it and it looks like its falling backwards.

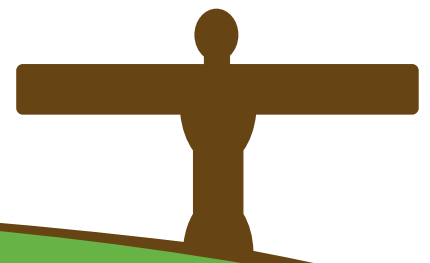

I think the angel is the best in the world and it is as big as the statue of liberty. I thought the angels party was excellent I went to the angel and I thought it was excellent because its so tall.

The angel is so tall she is tall as a tree. The angel is so amazing because she is really nice. I think the angel is like a yummy chocolate bar. Once I went to the angel it was really fun because I slid down the legs.

The angel is brown because it has rusted over in the years for it is made of steel. Some people think the angel is a sign of god and it does point to heaven.

I think the angel is important because it is ten years old this year. Wherever you go the angel looks out for you and sees if you are safe. The angel isn't just made they is always a design before they make it to the angel it is 65ft tall 20 metres tall. There is not a bank of stairs in the angel so you have to climb in the outside.

The angel has a big head that is metal. The angel has a big head that points to the north. The angel is ten this year next year its going to be eleven.

I like the colour and the shape of it. I like it when you stand on the hill because it looks like it will fall.

The angel is the biggest person in the world. It is ten years old today and I look at it out my window. Everyone loves the angel and its there to remind people of god. The angel shines in the sky like a cloud. The angel is really special in the world. The angel is made out of steel. It has huge wings and it looks like it is in the sky.

The angel has huge wings and points to the north east. Is the angel a boy or a girl? Does the angel remind people of you? The angel looks beautiful inspiring it's the angel's birthday this year.

I like the angel because you can see it from miles and miles away. When you go past the angel you know you're in Gateshead.

The Angel is a beautiful site to the people of north people from brazil think that the angel gives peace to the people of England.

I like driving past the angel because it is orangey brown and stands tall.

I like it when I drove past the angel because it is in the sky.

I like the Angels birthday party. The angel is 65 feet tall.

The angel has wings and they are huge the wings are brownish colour the angel is ten years old the angel points north.

The angel has enormous wings and is made of steel. It lives on a huge hill and people like to look at the angel.

I like the angel because if people are lost on the road or the path. I like the angel because of the colour of it is fascinating and when it is in the sunset it looks beautiful.

The angel is 65 foot when I look at the angel it reminds me about my granddad and he is an angel. The angel is ten years this year. In the winter when show falls on the angel the angel looks beautiful.

The angel of the north is ten now. The angel reminds people of god. The angel is 65 feet tall. The Angel has huge wings and points north.

The angel has had his birthday. I like the angel because it is beautiful. I like the colour of the angel. It is orangey brown.

I think the angel of the north is very very good! I really like the angel because it is a chocolate colour and I really like chocolate. The angel of the north is amazing because it stands there like an aeroplane. When I went up to the angel I looked up and it looked like it was falling down.

The angel is as high as an aeroplane. The angel is as long as a rectangle. When I looked up I felt dizzy. The angel reminds me of chocolate bars.

The angel is 55 feet tall. They angel has huge wings and points to the north. The angel is ten this year. The angel reminds people of god. The angel is made out of steel metal. The angel keeps standing for 100 years.

The amazing angel. The angel is as massive as an aeroplane.
