I understand that the provision is most effective when both parents attend together. I am supplying the other parent's details below so that we can be referred to provision together. I understand that if both parents are unable to attend this provision, then I may not be able to receive this support as some types are only able to proceed with both parents.

Why is this data being collected?

This information will be really valuable for providers and RPC Local Authorities and gateways to work effectively with you to support parents on the Programme, as well as for internal learning within the CPAs on the referral process.

The information is also being collected to contribute to DWP's evaluation of the RPCP. DWP have contracted two independent research companies to support the evaluation: IFF, and Tavistock Institute of Human Relations (TIHR) who may contact you to seek your views on your experiences of the referral process and of identifying and supporting parents in conflict. The results of the evaluation will be published, though all results will be anonymised, so you will not be identifiable in any way

What happens to information collected about me?

Your contact details will be shared with the Provider and Local Authority CPA gateway to help them to work effectively with parents on the Programme, as well as for the CPA Local Authorities to understand locally the how the RPC Programme is working.

For DWP's evaluation, your professional contact information will be transferred securely from DWP to IFF and TIHR who may contact you to take part in further research for the evaluation of the RPCP. If contacted, you may decline to participate. Although we would value your feedback on the programme.

You can request a copy of the information DWP holds about you on the link below.

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/request-your-personal-information-from-the-department-for-work-and-pensions>

You can also change the information you have provided and or withdraw the information DWP holds about you.

You can do this by contacting our Data Protection Officer at:

data.protectionofficer@dwp.qsi.gov.uk.

The legal basis for processing your data:

DWP have a public function to evaluate and assess their programmes. Data processing will be carried out under Article 6 of the GDPR which states: the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller Art 6(1)(e)

By opting to complete this section, you are agreeing to supply your data under the terms above.
